Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings: Deut 18:15-20; 1 Cor 7:32-35; Mark 1:21-28

“The Holy One of God”

The central character in Mark’s Gospel is Jesus of Nazareth, a miracle worker who heals the sick, frees individuals from demonic possession and manifests power over nature and even death. Jesus as an authoritative teacher, he is the Son of Man, Son of David, Lord, Messiah. Today’s reading narrates the beginning of Jesus’ public activity as a teacher and healer. The events take place in the synagogue at

The Miracle Work Jesus Teacher, Healer, Preacher, Savior

Capernaum, by the Sea of Galilee. The point here is that from the beginning of his public activity, Jesus is powerful in both word and deed. This text features a title for Jesus—“the Holy One of God”— a title that comes from the demon or unclean spirit that inhabits the possessed man.

In the Bible the word holy entails separation from the ordinary and profane, and implies a connection to God and the divine sphere. In fact, God is the Holy One par excellence. Persons, things and actions are holy by association with God as the Holy One. Holiness involves consecration and dedication to God, and separation from what is evil and improper. In calling Jesus “the Holy One of God” the demon recognizes that Jesus is more than a wise teacher or powerful healer. Rather, as the Holy One of God, Jesus reveals the person of God and the will of God.

My concern will be with the significance of God the Holy One, Jesus as the Holy One of God, and the Holy Spirit in Christian life today. From these first-century documents, we in the 21st century can learn much about the difference that Jesus the Holy One of God can make in our lives. By associating with Jesus we can become holy and share in the divine life.

APPRECIATION MASS and DINNER
Saturday, February 11, 2006
Mass 4 pm—Dinner 5 pm

Come join us as we recognize our many volunteers who throughout the year give of their time and talent to make Holy Rosary a wonderful parish.

The parish will provide the meat, salad, bread and cake. To compliment the dinner we are asking for 15 volunteers to bring a casserole dish. Please call the secretary to sign up.

To be sure that we have adequate food call the rectory by Tuesday, February 7 to let us know if you will be attending.

WISE SAYINGS.....

You can't expect people to look eye to eye with you if you are looking down on them.

CHÚA NHẬT THỨ TƯ THƯỜNG NIÊN

Deut.18:15-20; 1 Corinthians 7:32-35; Mark 1:21-28

Uy quyền chữa lành của Chúa Giêsu

Không như các luật sĩ, Chúa Giêsu giảng dạy người ta như một Đấng có uy quyền. Dân chúng rất kinh ngạc vì lời nói uy quyền của Chúa Giêsu. Đang lúc giảng dạy trong hội đường ở Capernaum, Chúa Giêsu đã chữa lành một người bị thần ô uế ám ảnh.

Người này định lần át quyền lực Chúa Giêsu bằng cách kêu lớn tên Người. Chúa Giêsu có đầy quyền lực hơn thần này, nên Chúa quát bảo nó im đi. Mọi người kinh ngạc và danh tiếng Người liền đồn ra khắp mọi nơi, lan tràn khắp vùng Galilêa.

Chúa Giêsu có quyền lực chữa lành cho chúng ta ngày nay nếu chúng ta biết tin và kêu cầu đến Người
Thánh lễ và tiệc cảm ơn
Giáo xứ Holy Rosary sẽ mở một buổi tiệc để khoản đãi các ân nhân đã đóng góp công sức và tài chánh cho giáo xứ. Thánh lễ sẽ vào ngày thứ bảy 11/2 lúc 4 giờ chiều, sau đó là tiệc tại hội trường. Xin cho Cha Joseph biết số người tham dự trong gia đình

Lectors and Prospective Lectors

There will be a mandatory workshop for ALL current lectors, and ALL those who would like to become lectors, on Saturday, 2/11/06, from 3:00 pm to 3:45 pm in the church. If you wish to lector, you MUST attend. The lector plays a vital role in the Celebration of the Eucharist and, as such, it is critically important for each lector to read with both strength and conviction; that is, strength of delivery and power of faith. We will develop this theme during the workshop and demonstrate how to effectively fulfill it. We will start promptly at 3:00 pm. If you have questions, please contact Fr. Joe at 842-5440 or Jim Stanley at 228-3149

New lectors are welcome and needed for all masses, even those who can read only once a month. Now is the time to sign up. Naturally all lectors are invited to stay for the 4 pm mass and for the parish dinner following the mass.
