Holy Trinity Sunday

Prov.8:22-31; Rom.5:1-5; John16:12-15

Glory and praise

To the Father: Creator

“For you created me and shaped me.
Gave me life within my mother’s womb.
For the wonder of who I am, I praise you:
safe in your hands, all creation is made new.”

To the Son: Redeemer

“You know my resting and my rising.
You discern my purpose from afar,
and with love everlasting you besiege me:
in every moment of life and death, you are”.

To the Spirit: Sanctifier

“Although your Spirit is upon me,
still I search for shelter from your light.
There is nowhere on earth I can escape you:
even the darkness is radiant in your sight”.

Loving God...

“You are with me beyond my understanding:
God of my present, my past and future, too”.

Shower of rose petals

OUR LADY OF THE AUDIENCE 2010

Our celebration last Sunday was the combination of the feast of Pentecost and of Our Lady of the Audience. A first time participant to the 2009 feast of O. L. of the Audience claims that he experienced a miracle; he was called for a heart transplant on that same day. I believe the miracle this year was experienced by the whole assembly. The extraordinary participation to the feast was the largest of any celebration at Holy Rosary in the last 10 years. I consider it the first miracle of Our Lady’s feast this year. How many people were exposed and touched by Mary’s love and blessings! The whole assembly prayed and sang with such love and devotion that reminded me of the Pentecost that we were celebrating. Accompanied by the organ, musical instruments and the choir it sounded like an angelic assembly.

When the celebration moved outdoor for the “shower of rose petals” everybody reached out to catch the rose petals that were “raining” down over the statue. The rose petals ran out, but the lucky “catchers” were gracious to share them with others.

Dulcis in fundo: Delicious home made cookies and refreshments were enjoyed by all as well as the warm company of old and new friends. I am grateful to the Molle clan and the devotees from Sambuca and elsewhere who are a vital part of the feast; to all who prepared the cookies, those who served in church and outdoors and everyone who participated and made our celebration a spiritual experience and historical event. From immediate comments that I heard I can tell you that most people who attended the celebration came with hope and expectations for blessings and healing and they were leaving satisfied and grateful with the assurance that Our Blessed Mother has blessings and healing for everyone and even miracles for the daring believers in Her love.

A special thank you to my assistant-partner, deacon John Barelli, whose father Dr. Pat Barelli was the oldest participant from Sambuca. May Our Lady of the Audience continue to bless and protect us.

On the lighter side... this year I missed the delicious taste of Sambuca, (honestly, I did not look for it), but it was well compensated by more healthy substitutes.

Next Year celebration will be Sunday, May 22, 2011

Next week I will share comments about the celebration made by participants.

LỄ CHÚA BA NGÔI

Pro.8:22-31; Rom. 5:1-5; John 16:12-15

Vinh danh và ca ngợi...

... Đức Chúa Cha, Đấng Tạo Vật

Chúa đã dựng nên hình hài con.

Cho con đời sống ngay từ lúc con ở trong lòng mẹ con. Con ngợi ca Chúa, con tự hỏi con là ai: “Sẽ bình an trong tay Ngài tất cả những tạo vật mới”

... Cùng Chúa Con, Đấng Cứu Chuộc

“Chúa biết nơi con an nghỉ và nơi con chào đời. Ngài biết mục đích của con, Và với tình yêu vô bờ bến đã ôm ấp con mọi ngày mọi lúc trong đời sống cũng như lúc lâm chung”

... Cùng Chúa Thánh Thần, đấng cầu bầu

Dù Ngài ở trong con, Con vẫn muốn ẩn náu trong ánh sáng của Ngài. Không có nơi nào trên trái đất này, ngay cả bóng đêm mà không có sự quan phòng của Ngài”.

Lạy Thiên Chúa Yêu thương...

“Chúa đã ở cùng con, vượt mọi hiểu biết của con: Chúa là Thiên Chúa của con mọi ngày mọi lúc trong hiện tại, cũng như quá khứ cùng tương lai”.
